Announcements

Summer Cleaning:

Thanks to those of you that could make it out on July 1 to conduct some much-needed cleaning at the clubhouse. The Christmas decorations are finally put away! The matting was vacuumed and mopped by a full team effort. The smell of freshly cut grass was in the air thanks for the efforts of Lou and Chuck when it was ~90F outside. Some minor weeding was conducted and the water filter and some light bulbs were changed. It should be all set to host a great picnic next week!

EKC Brochure and Handouts:

The updated draft of the EKC Brochure is attached with this newsletter. Again, any and all feedback is welcome and encouraged! Let's make sure this brochure is something we are proud of to promote our club! Also, we discussed the need to order some more "freebies" to handout at events to promote the club. Kayla is going to start brainstorming some ideas and hopefully we can get something ordered prior to Paws in the Park.
